

Fellowship and Duty to God

Adventure Requirements

Complete Requirement 1. Complete one option for Requirements 2 and 3.

Complete the following requirements.

- 1) Discuss with your parent, guardian, den leader, or other caring adult what it means to do your duty to God. Tell how you do your duty to God in your daily life.
- 2) Complete at least one of the following:
 - a) Identify a person whose faith you admire, and discuss this person with your family.
 - b) With a family member, provide service to a place of worship or a spiritual community, school, or community organization that puts into practice your ideals of duty to God and strengthens your fellowship with others.
- 3) Complete at least one of the following:
 - a) Earn the religious emblem of your faith that is appropriate for your age, if you have not already done so.
 - b) Make a list of things you can do to practice your duty to God as you are taught in your home or place of worship or spiritual community. Select two of the items and practice them for two weeks.

Parent Corner

Inspiration and support for your child spiritual development will come primarily from your family and slash or faith leaders. While reverence and duty to God have always been part of Scouting values, the Boy Scouts of America does not promote any specific religion and is not completely nonsectarian. There is no requirement that Scouts identify with a particular religion or faith. In keeping with these principles, your Scout will need your guidance to complete the requirements for this adventure.

Fellowship and Duty to God

Requirement #1: Duty to God

Materials Needed

Instructions

1. Discuss with your parent, Guardian, den leader, or other caring adults what it means to do your duty to God.
2. Tell how you do your duty to God in your daily life. Write one example in the space below:

The Golden Rule is a good rule to follow every day, and it's one way we can practice duty to God. Practicing the Golden rule is a big part of this adventure.

Pee Wee Says

"Golden Rule: Treat others the way you would like to be treated."

Requirement #2A: Person of Faith you admire

Materials Needed

- Pencil

Instructions

Many people throughout history have shown great faith in God by reaching out to people in their neighborhoods and communities. They freely gave their time and talent to help other people.

- 1) Look at your Bear Cub Scout Handbook and the names of a few of those people.
- 2) Identify a person whose faith you admire and discuss this person with your family

Requirement #3B: Practicing your Duty to God

Materials Needed

- Pencil

Instructions

1. On the next page in your book make a list of things you can do to practice your duty to God as you are taught in your home, place of worship or spiritual community.
2. Select two of the items and practice them for two weeks.

Every faith has things its members are supposed to do. Some of those things draw you closer to God, like praying and going to worship services. Some of those draw you closer to other people, like serving and offering to help other others in need.

Which two items did you choose to practice for two weeks?

Pee Wee Says

“As you practice your duty to God, talk to your parents about why these acts are important to you and your family.”
