Team Tiger

Adventure Requirements

Complete requirements 1 and 2 plus at least two others.

1. With your parent, guardian, or other caring adult, or with your den, talk about what it means to be part of a team. List some of the teams you are on (den, pack, family, class, etc.), and explain how you can help each one.
2. With your den, talk about your Tiger team. Then make a chart showing all the different ways team members can help the den. Volunteer to take your turn doing at least two different jobs, one of which is leading the Pledge of Allegiance.
3. With your family, talk about how family members each have a role in the family team. Then pick a job that you will do to help the team. Follow through by doing that job at least three times during the next three weeks.
4. With you den for family, participate as a team in a service project that helps our country or your community
5. With your den, make a chart or picture showing how you and your teammates make a better team because you are alike in some ways but different in others.

Parent Corner

This adventure is about teamwork; what it means to be part of a team and what the responsibilities and duties of a team are. Talk to your scout about all the different teams he is a part of, whether it is at school, church, home, extra-curriculars, etc., and guide your Scout to learn how to be a better teammate. You can learn more about this adventure here.

RANK ADVENTURES

Team Tiger

Requirement 1- Part of a Team

Materials Needed

- My Teams activity sheet
- Pencil

Instructions

Watch this video to learn more about teams.

With your parent, guardian, or other caring adult, or with your den, talk about what it means to be part of a team.

On the following page or in your Tiger Cub Scout Handbook, list some of the teams you are on.

Explain how you can help each team.

Teams do many exciting things. Best of all, they do them together! A team of firefighters puts out fires. A team of astronauts travel into space. Now you get to learn about your own teams.

Pee Wee Says

"Teams are simply groups of individual people who are working/playing together for a common goal."

My Teams

My den team is:

My pack team is:

My school team is:

My neighborhood team is:

What other teams are you on?

Now that you have listed your teams, think about how you help each one. Do you cheer on friends on your sports team?

Do you have a classroom job?

Do you help out at home?

How can a team do more things than one person can?

Tiger Team

Requirement 2 – Tiger Team

Materials Needed

- Den Duty Chart
- Pencil

Instructions

Using the chart on the following page, list all the different ways that team members can help the den.

If you are unable to attend den meetings, list all the different ways that members can help the family.

Volunteer to take your turn doing at least two different jobs, one of which is leading the Pledge of Allegiance.

If you are unable to attend den meetings, I would encourage you and your family to practice doing flag ceremonies at home and take turns saying the Pledge of Allegiance.

THE PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE – Stand up straight and face the flag. If you have a hat on, take it off with your right hand. Hold your right hand (with a hot or not) over your heart. If you are in your Tiger uniform, you may keep your uniform cap on your head and use the Cub Scout salute instead of putting your hand over your heart while saying the Pledge of Allegiance.

Pee Wee Says

“Teams are simply groups of individual people who are working/playing together for a common goal.”

Requirement 3 – Roles on the Team

Materials Needed

- 1'-2" ribbon, 1 pair
- Velcro circles, clothes pins with clips, O ring
- Pencil, markers

Instructions

With your family, talk about how family members each have a role in the family team.

On the following page, list the family duties.

Now you are going to make a family duty roster. Find the supplies in your box.

Use Velcro circles to attach to one end of the 2" ribbon to the O ring.

With a marker, list the family duties on the clothes pins

List family names on the clothes pins. You will need to list names more than once!

Attach clothes pins with the duties on the left side of the ribbon. Attach the clothes pins with the names on the right side of the ribbon. Align names with duties.

Hang the duty roster using the O ring.

What job did you pick to do at least 3 times during a 3-week period?
How did you remember to do the job?

Pee Wee Says

"A Scout is loyal. You can show that you are loyal to your family by helping with chores."

Requirement 5 – Team Picture

Materials Needed

- Tiger Den Diversity Chart
- Pencil

Instructions

Talk with an adult about these questions:

1. Does everyone in my town go to the same school?
2. Does everyone in my den like the same TV show?
3. Does everyone in my den play the same games?
4. Does anyone in my den have grandparents that live in another country?

We use the word diversity to talk about the ways people are different. Does it matter if people look different or think in different ways?

Make a chart on the following page or in your Tiger Cub Scout Handbook to show some ways your Tiger den members are alike and different.

How are you similar to your den members?

How are you different?

How do the differences help your team?

Pee Wee Says

Teams are simply groups of individual people who are working/playing together for a common goal.
