

Tiger Circles: Duty to God

Adventure Requirements

Complete requirements 1 plus at least two others.

1. Discuss with your parent, guardian, den leader, or other caring adult what it means to do your duty to God. Tell how you do your duty to God in your daily life.
2. With a family member, attend a religious service or other activity that shows how your family expresses reverence for God.
3. Earn the religious emblem of your faith that is appropriate for your age or grade
4. Help with a local service project and talk to your den or family about how helping others is part of our duty to God.
5. With the approval of your parent, guardian, den leader, or other caring adult, think of and then carry out an act of kindness or respect that you think shows duty to God.

NOTE TO PARENTS AND OTHER CARING ADULTS: The Boy Scouts of America believes that faith can become an important part of a child's identity. All of the major faiths encourage hope, optimism, compassion, and a belief in a better tomorrow. Inspiration and support for your child's spiritual development will come primarily from your family and/or faith leaders. While reverence and duty to God have always been part of Boy Scout values, the Boy Scouts of America does not promote any specific religion and is completely nonsectarian. There is no requirement that Scouts identify with a particular religion or faith or that a Scout's family be part of an organized faith group. In keeping with these principles, your Scout will need your guidance to complete requirements for this "Tiger Circles: Duty to God" adventure.

RANK ADVENTURES

Tiger Circles: Duty to God

Requirement #1: Meaning of Duty to God

Materials Needed:

Instructions

Review the information in your Tiger Cub Scout Handbook.

Discuss what it means to you and your family to do your duty to God.

Discuss with your family how you do your duty to God in your daily life.

Pee Wee Says

A Scout is reverent toward God. Always respect the beliefs of others. Reverent means to have a faith, to believe in that faith, and make your faith stronger by practicing it.

Requirement #2: Religious Service

Materials Needed:

Instructions

With a family member, attend a religious service or other activity that shows how your family expresses reverence for God.

Note that if you are social distancing, attending a service remotely satisfies this requirement.

If your family prefers, you might participate in an activity in which people show reverence in a home or out-doors setting.

Pee Wee Says

You'll learn about reverence to God by watching what happens all around you during a religious service or other faith-related activity in which your family participates. You and at least one other family member might attend a worship service that is part of your traditional faith heritage. Or you and a caring adult might visit a place of worship that your family does not usually attend. Be sure to be respectful whenever you are in a place where people are worshipping.

Requirement #3: Act of Kindness

Materials Needed:

- Pencil

Instructions

With the approval of your parent, guardian, den leader, or other caring adult, think of and then carry out an act of kindness or respect that you think shows duty to God.

After you have carried out your plan, talk with the caring adult about how you felt as you did your act of kindness. Discuss how your act of kindness might have made a difference in someone's life.

My act of kindness was:

Scouts are also helpful. We help others when we others in need. Sometimes helping other people is not convenient to us.
